

Masahiro Shiina graduated for Electrical engineering course at National Institute of Technology, Gunma College in 1992. He has 26 years of experience in Semiconductor companies. Before joining Mentor, he held different advanced analog design experience and managing positions in RF design section.

In 2012, he joined Mentor Graphics to lead the project for Custom design environment with ONSEMI group in Japan region. He currently is Technical Marketing Engineer for Custom LSI design Solution and Silicon photonics project to develop partnership with Customers addressing the next challenge of PIC solution”